Delbert’s in Arthur closing after 57 years in business

BY DAVID PORTER

Hello, Arcola. It’s been a long time coming, but my wife Cindy and I are finally ready to put together the Record-Herald and all of the other projects we’ve been involved in. We appreciate the patience Cindy and Chris Slack have had with us as we have worked toward this goal. The Slacks have been kind and patient with us through our negotiations. We hope they never have to do anything like this again.

Things will change at the newspaper, but now is the time to try some new things and organize the paper a little differently. We haven’t yet figured out just yet, but we will be doing a lot of rearranging.

We are about to change the newspaper as the industry has changed dramatically in recent years. We hope readers will bear with us as we settle into a new routine. We are working out the many challenges that face us.

Because we have another newspaper, the Small County, we won’t be able to have everything as the Record-Herald. We intend to pass the proverbial baton to people in place to cover the news that we can’t.

The most changes in the look and feel of the newspaper will be quickly. We think the paper looked good before, but now is the time to make changes.
